

My Disney Experience Account <https://disneyworld.disney.go.com/plan/>

1. Create an account (If you already have a MY Disney Experience Account I would go ahead and create a new MY Disney Experience Account for this trip- especially if you think you will be planning another Disney trip in the future.
You can (Gmail, yahoo, Hotmail etc to create another email address)

2. Click on Create an Account. Fill out required information and click Done

The screenshot shows the "Let's Set Up Your Disney Account" registration form. The form is titled "Let's Set Up Your Disney Account" and includes the following sections:

- Sign-In Information: Includes fields for "Email*" (with a placeholder "Mickey55@domain.com"), "Confirm Email*", "Password*" (with a note "Enter a password that is 4 to 25 characters. Use only letters and numbers."), and "Confirm Password*".
- About Me: Includes fields for "Title", "First Name*", "M.I.", "Last Name*", and "Suffix". It also includes a "Birthday*" section with dropdown menus for "Month", "Day", and "YYYY".
- Contact Information: This section is partially visible at the bottom of the form.

At the bottom of the form, there are "Cancel" and "Done" buttons.

3. Once your account is created go ahead and sign in

This will take you to the My Disney Experience Splash page ---- Click Get Started

4. On the Do you have a Disney Reservation Click No (We do not have the individual room reservations at this time, just the park ticket numbers).

5. The next page will ask if you are making plans with anyone including family (unless you have the information for the people in your group (who you will be making fast pass plans with) you will need to check No for now. You can add people at a later time.

IMPORTANT: You will need to add the people you will be making fast plans with to your My Disney Account so the fast pass times match up.

- Have you purchased your tickets yet – Check Yes. Click Link Tickets
You will link park ticket reservations (You will receive the park ticket number from your chaperone). Enter in your park ID Number (Ticket Number) – Click Next
